

Prof. Dr. Filiz Özer

Isik University
Faculty of Fine Arts Industrial Product Design

filiz.ozer@isikun.edu.tr

After graduating from Robert College in Istanbul, Prof. Dr. Filiz Özer received her B.A. in history from Vassar College of U.S.A (1965). She completed her graduate studies and PhD. Degree in the Classical Archeology Department in Istanbul University. In 1977 she received her Associate Professor with her thesis entitled “AN EVALUATION OF THE IMPACT OF PAST ON CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURE”. In 1988 she retained the title of Professor in Istanbul Technical University. In 1985 Filiz Özer was awarded the International Visitors Grant from the State Department of U.S.A. Prof. Özer taught undergraduate and graduate courses on history of art and architecture in Istanbul Technical University. She is currently working as an instructor at the Faculty of Engineering and Architecture in Istanbul Kemerburgaz University. She has many published scholarly articles, in Turkish and English, on history of art and architecture. Prof. Özer has given lectures at various foreign as well as Turkish educational institutions and museums. Her main areas of interests are contemporary architecture, contemporary design and different periods of Ottoman Architecture. Prof. Dr. Filiz Özer has been a member of the organizing committees of many national and international symposiums coordinated by Istanbul Technical University.

She is working as a part time instructor in the Department of Industrial Design at the Faculty of Fine Arts in Işık University