

Asst. Prof. Dr. Önder Turan

Isik University
Faculty of Fine Arts Industrial Product Design

onder.turan@isikun.edu.tr

Born in 1951 in Ankara, Turan completed his primary and secondary education in İstanbul.

In 1975 he graduated from the Department of Industrial Design and Interior Architecture in İstanbul Fine Arts Academy.

In 1975, he started working as an assistant.

In 1983 he defended his thesis entitled "The Act of Rational Approach in Design for Industry & Contemporary Related Principles" in MSU/ FBE.

He worked full- time and gave lectures in the Fine Arts Academy, International American University, Maltepe University and Dogus University.

Also he is giving lectures in Bahcesehir University.

In addition to his professional applications in furniture, interior, industrial and jewelry design, he has various works and publications about photography, short film, etching, watercolor painting, industrial design and interior design and he is still working on his applications in those fields.

His photographs and paints were exhibited in various exhibitions.

Since 2009, he has been working as a part time Associate Professor and giving lectures giving project studio, furniture design, street furniture design and design theories in The Department of Industrial Product Design at the Faculty of Fine Arts in Işık University.