

Assist. Prof.Dr.
Işık University Faculty of Fine Arts /
Visual Arts Dept.

zeliha.burtek@isikun.edu.tr

Zeliha Burtek was born in Istanbul, 1970. After obtaining B.S. in architecture from Yıldız Technical University, she earned a master's degree in Western Art and Modern Art after studying at Mimar Sinan University and she also took a master's degree in philosophy from Galatasaray University. She completed her Ph.D. in sociology at Mimar Sinan University in 2006. Her current teaching experience covers the courses: Sociology of Art, Ontology of Art, Art and Politics and Phenomenology of Space. She writes essays on reading "work of art" for contemporary art magazines. She works part-time at the department of Visual Arts, Faculty of Fine Arts at Işık University.