* Compulsory courses to be taken in the scientific preparation program cannot replace the courses deemed necessary to complete the relevant graduate program. However, in addition to scientific preparation courses, a student in the scientific preparation program can also take courses for the graduate program with the recommendation of the department head and the approval of the institute board of directors. (IŞIK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES AND TRAINING REGULATION / Article 24(2))

DURATION: The duration of the master's program with thesis is four semesters, regardless of whether the student is registered for each semester, starting from the semester in which the courses related to the registered program are given, excluding the time spent in the scientific preparation (Additional phrase: RG-4/5/2023-32180) and the English preparation program. The program is completed in a maximum of six semesters. (IŞIK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF GRADUATE STUDIES AND TRAINING REGULATION / Article 7(1))
